

MALCOLM LUBLINER

“Between 1968 and 1978 I was the contract photographer for Gemini G.E.L. in Los Angeles, then and now, major publishers of original art works produced by some of the worlds’ most renowned artists. In 1969 and 1970, I was also the principle photographer for The Art & Technology Program sponsored by The Los Angeles County Museum of Art. That project brought together major aerospace companies and famed artists who had shown special aptitude for science and technology.” - Malcolm Lubliner
